

This comment is in regard to the attempted weakening of the indiana no call list from the bank conglomerate. I feel the no call list is perfect the way it is, especially for a household with small children like mine, please do not allow this action to take place

Regards,

Jeff Miller